1834 Keys Crescent Lane

The Loire Valley a la Keys Crescent

The drive from Paris to the Loire is best described as spectacular...it is reminiscent of our very own Keys Crescent Lane.

In the heart of the East Walnut Hill Historic District the area is a veritable wealth of rare architecture...so treasured that it has been protected from the "designs" of urban developers. High above the Ohio River Valley on Keys Crescent Lane is the most admired of these residences. Exquisitely restored with all documentation included to the new owner, this 5000+ square foot property has been featured in numerous publications illustrating the details of its preservation, and, the remarkable privacy of its 1.3 acre view site. Widely recognized for its Ludowici Glazed Tile Roof and exceptional charm, the home is ready to enjoy from décor to glorious Master Suite with His & Hers baths, Wine Room, State of the Art Kitchen, Fountains and Gardens, even four Garages. Join us for your very own private tour soon! Rich history and warm hospitality await you.
